

OUR SIREN SONG

'Watching the Waves' by Anne Harper

Refrain

Vastness and mystery

All connected to the sea

Watching the waves....

Watching the waves....

The Siren sings her song to me

Stills the mind, brings clarity.

Watching the waves...

Watching the waves...

Watching the waves...

Chorus

This is Our Siren Song,

An invitation, to celebration!

The Ocean's been here all along...

And this is Our Siren Song.

This is Our Siren Song,

But it's a warning, a cautioning!

The Ocean's been here all along...

Listen to the Siren's Song!

SING THIS TWICE - THEN>

Chorus

This is Our Siren Song,

An invitation, to celebration!

The Ocean's been here all along...

And this is Our Siren Song.

This is Our Siren Song,

But it's a warning, a cautioning!

The Ocean's been here all along...

Listen to the Siren's Song!

Refrain

Vastness and mystery

All connected to the sea

Watching the waves....

Watching the waves....

Watching the waves....

Watching the waves....

Ahhhhh... (watch!)

Then

Mmmm (to fade)
